A. Hosting Colocation Services

The following guide provides an overview of the pricing for Euronext Colocation Services.

The table set forth below indicates what type of Charges apply to you as a Client depending on your own status and that of any Affiliates or End-Users you may be authorised to service under the Agreement. Euronext's qualification of a Client shall be binding upon the Client.

Colocation cabinets and hosted users

There are three (3) cabinet options available in the Colocation area: 4kW, 9kW or 18 kW of peak power.

There are two (2) cabinet options available in the Proximity area: 4kW or 9kW of peak power.

Each cabinet is provided with a power distribution unit (PDU) by default.

Pricing for Non-recurring Fees is the same for Member and Non-Member.

Effective date: 1 January 2023

The Charges regarding Cabinets applicable before 1 January 2023 include a fixed amount for energy and cooling as pass-through costs. Due to the high volatility in respect of the underlying energy prices, Euronext will also pass-through the price increases Euronext has already absorbed in relation hereto. If the cost of energy decreases during the course of 2023, the pass-through costs for Clients will also decrease accordingly.

In order to provide transparency to Clients on the nature of the pass-through costs, Euronext has distinguished the variable pass-through costs for energy and cooling from the other applicable fixed Charges per Cabinet size (applying a 75% usage rate) as reflected in the Price List below. The P&C Unit costs will be communicated by Euronext on a monthly basis.

The pass-through of energy and cooling costs is not to be perceived as an increase of the corresponding Charges of Euronext, though is solely as a pass-through cost in accordance with the Agreement.
